Musical Performances on Tulip Toren in Central Park

7:00 – 8:15 am

8:15 – 8:30 am

de Musik DJ Services – Spinning tunes for your entertainment and enjoyment.
Pella Dutchesses – Pella's famous Dutchesses will entertain with Dutch dances and stories.
The Big Band – This group of area musicians is donning the name RAGBRAI Big Band in recognition of the special occasion that requires this group to actually perform before noon on a week day. The ensemble is made up of area educators & directors both active & retired, businessmen & women, farmers, and a local doctor that enjoy playing big band music. And they do it more for fun than for profit! The group has played recently for two business conferences in Des Moines, a fund raiser for and area high school band program, and this past week-end they played at the opening of the new VAN WIJK WINERY in Sully, Iowa. Most of the repertoire is made up of 30's, 40's and 50's big band dance music with a few newer selections thrown in for the younger audience members. The best compliment the band could receive would be seeing the audience dance to their music.

10:00 – 10:40 am

Sydney Lett - Sydney Lett is a 15 year old country music singer from Des Moines, Iowa. Her love of music not only includes performing cover songs of her favorite artists including Miranda Lambert and JoDee Messina, but also includes writing original songs. One of her original works is entitled “Count the Stars” and is a song written for the brave Iowa sol-diers currently deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan and their families. Sydney had the honor of performing this song at several central Iowa send-off ceremonies and community events.

10:40 – 11:00 am

Pella Soloists – Mariah Kooyman, Jack Parisee, Rachel Mueller, Abbie Renaud trio – We welcome local talent – Mariah Kooyman, sophomore at Pella Community High School; Jack Parisee, senior at Pella Community High School; Rachel Mueller, senior at Pella Community High School – all members of AcaPella, the high school show choir and Abbie Renaud and friends, alumni of Pella Community Schools.
